Win one of 33 Everdure e-Altura Tower heaters worth $299 each!

House & Garden is Australia's number-one home design and decorating magazine. Each month, our pages are filled with gorgeous houses and gardens to delight in, homewares to covet and food to savour. Plus, you'll find loads of travel ideas, health and beauty news, expert advice and much, much more.

Everdure's new e-series is revolutionizing the electric heater market. Inspired by modern furniture design and pioneering functionality the e-series heaters will represent the summit of electric heating.

As the paramount model, the e-Altura embodies all the celebrated innovations of the range. Its Aleta plus heating system provides market leading wattage to power a larger than ever ceramic heating element ensuring more heat is created. The final piece to the puzzle is the ground-breaking aluminium fan that is stronger and quieter than ever before.

Complete with a 2-inch LCD touch-screen remote control and air purification function the e-Altura is a contemporary heater with a contemporary design.
